

Nic Cofield

Nic Cofield is the Director of Client Services at Jackson Thornton Technologies (JTT). Cofield joined the firm in 2005 and is responsible for all business development efforts and client service functions within JTT. As the Director of Client Services for Jackson Thornton Technologies, Nic Cofield uses his twelve years of experience in the industry to help his clients prepare to succeed in an ever-changing environment.

A dedicated technology consultant, Cofield offers a range of assessment and security advisory services to his clients including risk management, reviewing and verifying safeguards, developing remediation plans, providing a strategy and framework to lessen the likelihood of successful cyber-attacks. His experience working with top industry vendors helps his client relationships with small organizations and large alike. He is a recognized speaker and trainer and has served as a speaker for many organizations on technology best practices throughout the southeast. Cofield is a graduate of Auburn University. He and his wife live in Auburn, AL, with their three young daughters.