

Jon M. Holladay
Chief Financial Officer

Jon M. Holladay is the Senate-confirmed Chief Financial Officer at the U.S. Department of Agriculture (USDA). Mr. Holladay has been instrumental in improving the Department's financial systems and processes, receiving both the Meritorious Executive Rank Award and the Distinguished Rank Award for his efforts.

Prior to his current position, Mr. Holladay served as USDA's Deputy Chief Financial Officer since 2008 and USDA's Associate Chief Financial Officer for Financial Policy and Planning from 2004 to 2008. From 1999 to 2003, he served as a Supervisory Program Analyst and was detailed to USDA's National Finance Center as the Acting Deputy Director in 2003. Mr. Holladay joined USDA in 1992 as a Member of the Chief Financial Officer's Financial Statement's Task Force.

Mr. Holladay received a B.S. in Accounting from George Mason University School of Business and was a member of Beta Alpha Psi, the National Accounting Fraternity.