

Kathleen Lobell

Kathleen Lobell is the Director of the Unclaimed Property Division for the Louisiana Department of the Treasury. She has been with the Unclaimed Property program for 28 years. First when the program was administered by the Department of Revenue and continuing when the program was moved to the Department of Treasury in 2000. She became program director in 2012.

Kathleen has been a member of the National Association of Unclaimed Property Administrator's (NAUPA) since 1989 and served three years as Southern Regional Vice President. She is currently serving as NAUPA Secretary-Treasurer. She has participated as a speaker or panelist at many NAUPA conferences and training seminars.

Kathleen recently received the Unclaimed Property Professionals Organization's (UPPO) 2015 Members Choice Above & Beyond Award.