

Build a STRONGER ORGANIZATION with AGA

AGA is the member organization for government-finance professionals — and a valuable resource for employers.

CONNECT

Through training events, CGFM® certification, publications and ongoing professional education, AGA helps members build their skills and knowledge. And as AGA members grow, they help strengthen their organizations.

LEARN

The upfront costs of professional development — membership dues, training fees, time away from the office — are investments that pay off.

GROW

WHEN EMPLOYEES...

connect with the leading association for government-finance professionals participate in AGA's complimentary or discounted onsite and virtual training opportunities engage with industry experts seek and obtain AGA leadership roles demonstrate commitment to professional development and service to others are supported by their employer to participate in AGA engage with AGA members regarding common issues and challenges are encouraged to pursue CGFM certification network with fellow AGA members and participate in AGA committees

THEN EMPLOYERS...

expand their sphere of influence and pool of potential new staff invest in staff development with reduced training expenses gain strategies for working more efficiently and effectively increase their confidence in staff leadership competencies excel through professional staff with integrity and dedication build an informed workforce with high job satisfaction and retention benefit from awareness and adoption of leading practices gain highly qualified staff differentiated by a widely recognized and respected certification recognize dedication and commitment to the financial management community

WHEN EMPLOYEES ARE AGA MEMBERS... EVERYONE BENEFITS!
