

MICHAEL A. JACKSON
Training Supervisor
Alabama Corrections Academy

Michael A. Jackson is a Training Supervisor for the Alabama Department of Corrections. Michael is stationed at the Alabama Corrections Academy and is responsible for coordinating the day to day operations of basic training classes. Michael supervises subordinate training instructors who are responsible for carrying out the day to day activities of the basic training, lateral entry and refresher training classes.

Michael Graduated Suma Cum Laude with a Bachelor's of Science Degree in Criminal Justice. Michael has more than 27 years of service with the ADOC and holds the rank of LT. Michael is a native of Montgomery, Alabama and graduated from Robert E. Lee High School. Upon graduation he enlisted in the U.S. Marines, where he was eventually stationed at Camp Lejeune. While at Camp Lejeune, Michael attended North Carolina State University, majoring in political science and elementary education. Michael is a combat veteran receiving several meritorious awards, including the Navy Achievement Medal, Marine Corp Expeditionary Medal, and the Combat Action Ribbon, along with 21 other meritorious medals and awards. Michael was awarded the 1993 Enlisted Marine of the Year award for all United States Marine Corps Reserves. Michael is an APOSTC certified instructor in (SSGT) Strategic Self-defense and Grappling Tactics, (PPCT) Pressure Point Control Tactics as well as an FBI firearms and tactical hand gun instructor.

Michael is the Co-Founder and owner of J and F security Concepts. Michael is also the head of Titanium Music Productions Group Corporate Training/Motivational Speaking Division. Michael has developed and delivered numerous seminars and training sessions for both governmental and private sector agencies including; Alabama Dept. Of Public Health, LIFE Tech Transitional Center, Alabama Dept Of Transportation, ADOC Executive Leadership Conference, Alabama Council On Crime and Delinquency, Alabama Department of Public Safety Leadership Academy, Auburn University at Montgomery Leadership Academy and Escambia County Health Dept. among many others. His topics are wide and varied and cover areas ranging from Performance and leadership issues, weapons retention and hostage survival, women's safety, customer service, organizational change and generational dynamics.

Michael continues to expand his training and educational career by recently becoming a consultant for Auburn University Montgomery, Alabama Training Institute. Michael constantly demonstrates his commitment to professional development by completing the National Institutes of Corrections Management and Development for Women and Minorities, The Cooper Institute's First Responders Fitness Specialist. He and his wife Lisa have three children, six grandchildren and reside in Wetumpka, Alabama.